

Mark Lanegan, The Gravedigger's Song

with piranha teeth
I been dreaming of you and the taste of your love so sweet honest its true

through my heart flows sleep and the dark heavy rain where the gravedigger's song is sung you've been torturing me tout est noir, mon amour tout est blanc

je t'aime, mon amour comme j'aime la nuit

love, is the medicine good? is the crow flying eight miles high? over wire and wood

shovel down six feet with a head heavy pain
the magnolia blooms so sweet and it fades just the same to the stars my love

to the sea
to the wheels my love
till they roll all over me oh love, i been thnking of you with razor white teeth so sharp

in my blood flows sleep
only torturing me
