

Mark Lind, Everything Falls Apart

I know that you must be hurting
Everything that you know is crumbling
And everything that you've loved is washing away
If you can, believe me.
This is all just a passing moment
You'll leave behind and you'll go on to conquer the world
I want you. I need you
And now you want to take it all away
I'll make you feel like you're the only one in the world
Everything just falls apart
Everything just falls apart
Everything falls apart again
I don't know how long I can live this way
I face the pressure each and every day
I'm standing here like I'm all alone in the world
The phone rings but I don't pick it up
You're the only one I want to talk to
And we can live like we're the only ones in the world
Everything just falls apart
Everything just falls apart
Everything falls apart again
