

Mark Lowry, Some Other Time, Some Other Place

(Mark Lowry) Sandi you've sang with everyone,
From Larnell to Wayne Watson.

(Sandi Patti) Yes, all my partners have been great
Not one of them was second rate.

(ML) Why don't you sing this time with me?
I promise that I'll stay on key.

(SP) Sorry, but I can't help you out,
Got my career to think about.

(Both) So we'll sing then at some other time and some other place,

(SP) Where all my friends won't see, and noone know me
And I'll hide my face.

(ML) Though the dogs are howling, coyotes growling,

(SP) Whenever your solo comes.

(ML) I know happy I will be, if you'll just sing with me.

(SP) Some other time and some other place.

(ML) I promise I won't clown around.

I'll always smile and never frown.

(SP) You'll scare my audience to death,
And probably melt the mic with your breath.

(ML) The two of use could go so far.

(SP) Why can't we leave things how they are?

(ML) All of our concerts would sell out,

(SP) To all you relatives, no doubt.

(Both) So we'll sing then at some other time and some other place,

(SP) Where all my friends won't see, and noone know me
And I'll hide my face.

(ML) We'll be a hit, I'm certain.

(SP) My ears'll be hurtin'.

(ML) Sandi, I can't hardly wait for that sweet, sweet someday.

(SP) Lord, make him go away,
To some other time and some other place.

(ML) So we'll sing then,

(SP) We'll sing then,

(Both) At some other time and some other place,

(SP) Where all my friends won't see, and noone know me
And I'll disguise my face.

(ML) When my solo's nearing, the crowd will be cheering,

(SP) When I tell them they don't have to stay.

(ML) We'll win a dove award someday.

(SP) Even that will fly away
To some other time and some other place.
