

Mark Medlock, Mamacita

Sun in your eyes
Like a light of the magical moon
Like paradise
You're a grace where my heart belongs Harder I try
Love you more than my words can say I watched the sky
Oh I know we will find a way
Love me as there were no tomorrow Love me as there were no sorrows since I see you, my dreams come true
Oh mamacita I'm going crazy
Oh mamacita she blows my mind Oh mamacita give me your daughter cause such a girl is hard to find,
cause such a girl is hard to find
Oh mamamamamacita I'm going crazy
Oh mamacita, give me a chance
Oh mamacita, yeah she's my baby
an everlasting love romance
an everlasting love romance Grey turns to blue in a bed of the end of the world Baby just me and you
You are like a mysterious bird You made it real all the stars shining crystal blue oh how I feel wanna share all my dreams with you Ever must be missing of emotions
You're a lighting heart of the ocean Since I saw you my dreams come true
Oh mamacita I'm going crazy
She grows my mind
Oh mamacita gimme your daughter
Cause such a girl is hard to find
Cause such a girl is hard to find
Oh mamamamamacita I'm going crazy
Oh mamacita gimme a chance
Oh mamacita yeah she's my baby
An everlasting love romance
An everlasting love romance
Mamacitaaaaa
Oh mamacita I'm going crazy
Oh mamacita she grows my mind
Oh mamacita she's my baby
An everlasting love romance
An everlasting love romance
