

Mark Stewart, Stranger

There is a place for us some...

Somewhere
There is a place for us
Over the borderline

Somewhere
There is a place for us
Somewhere
Over the borderline

This is stranger
This is stranger
So much stranger than love
This is stranger

Somewhere...

This is stranger
So much stranger than love
This is stranger
So much stranger than love

This is stranger
So much stranger than love
This is stranger

They say that somewhere
there is a place for us
They say that somewhere
there is a place for us
There must be somewhere

Run
Like the hunted deer
Yes we'll run
Like the hunted deer

To that somewhere...

(Simple touch...simple touch...simple touch)

This is stranger
So much stranger than love
This is stranger

I have given you
Shines through your eyes
I have given you
It shines through your eyes

This is stranger
So much stranger than love
This is stranger

Somewhere
There is a place for us
Somewhere...
