

Maroon 5, Spoke with Kate

Spoke with Kate late last night with hopes to get my fix of her advice inquired about a mutual friend and the meaning that I held in her life and she said "when ya gonna learn, she must create her own reality to survive

that those geminis will get you every time

As the conversation moved along I was mystified by the eloquence of her words which made everything I said look so confusing and entirely absurd

and she said "when ya gonna learn,
she said "when ya gonna learn that those geminis will get you every time

Spoke with Kate late last night with -hopes to answer the phone that was ringing loud Jesse why don't you go get it because we don't want them to not leave a message for us and I said when ya gonna learn?

who is it?
I don't know who it is but whoever it is will gain a new significance in our life because while we were demoing this song they called to say hello they've just bought themselves into this song they didn't know what they were getting into when they dialed the numbers who is it?
oh my god
she's now in this song
forever
