

Marta Sanchez, Where the love ends

We are living in illusion,
we dream away our lives
through the mirror of confusion.
We learn to close our eyes.
Desires go unspoken
still sleeping in the night.
One kiss will take me over
and my feelings come to light.
Where the love never ends,
i will hold you forever.
Where the love never ends,
you will find us together.
And maybe one day in time,
i'll touch you and you'll be mine.
Everyday, just show me the way.
We lie hidden in the shadows,
play it safe or not at all.
Gotta live as if it matters,
not afraid to ever fall.
(repeat chorus)
We are waiting here for answers
to end the loneliness,
to love is to take chances
and hope it's for the best.
(repeat chorus)
And maybe one day in time,
i'll touch you and you'll be mine.
Everyday, just show me the way.
