

Martin Jondo, Are you really waiting

Are you really waiting if i am kept behind the stars are you waiting if i'm not home are you really waiting if i am coming to you but only with the words the words i wrote down it has been a long time yeah since we've been walking up the street and you are runnin through my mind yeah so i tell you what i feel all this glitterin diamonts diamonds and pearls
they are like nothing cause you are most worth ((cause you are most worth))
are you really waiting if i am kept behind the stars
are you waiting if i'm not home
give me your love 'cause i will need it to go on show me your love in times when i cant't see the shinin sun give me some hope that i will never be alone when life is cold, cold, cold like a stone give me your hand i can't hold it right now send me a prayer i will get it through the power of love don't let me down time will tell and pass by i will be free like a bird and then i fly so if i'm crying and dying ((crying and dying))
do you feel that i'm alive ((feel that i'm alive))
so if i'm crying and dying ((crying and dying))
will you be there by my side ((be there by my side))
so if i'm crying and dying ((crying and dying))
are you really waiting if i am kept behind the stars
are you waiting if i'm not home
but only with the words the words i wrote down
