Martin Nievera, Each Day With You

Each Day With You Martin Nievera

Flowers oh, on this lovely evening Though they have no words they share my feelings;

As we walk along the avenue, Pardon me, I just can't help staring at you.

When I look into those sparkling eyes, If float in the air and wonder in paradise; You give my heart a source of inspiration, Your beauty is beyond imagination.

CHORUS:

You are the one The only one I desire, When we touch, When we're one you light the fire;

The seasons we share Hand in hand, there seems to be no time, Each day with you becomes a Valentine.

Time must go on and so must we Moments slip away to unlock the memories; One day as we look back with all this treasure, Candle light that shines beyond before.

(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE)

Each day with you becomes a Valentine. Your beauty is beyond imagination.

(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE, 2X)

Each day with you becomes Valentine.

(REPEAT CHORUS FADING)
