

Martin Nievera, Never Said Goodbye

Travelling down the road
Passing the signs that used to be
I remember you and me

The road that leads me home
Is it too far for me to find
The days we left behind

Then the day you left me
It took me by surprise
Do you really love me
Still see it in your eyes

(But) you never said goodbye
You never heard my cry
The day you left my side
'Coz you never said goodbye

I live my life alone
Wondering what went wrong
You're trapped inside my mind
You never said goodbye

Maybe I was wrong
To think that we could ever be
Was it enough for you and me

We could have it all
It's not too late to realize
The way we feel inside

Then the day you left me
Took me by surprise
I know you really love me
I can see it when you cry
