Marty Robbins, Chasing Rainbows

Did you ever find yourself out chasin' rainbows
When that pot of gold was right there in your arms
Did you ever take the woman you love for granted
And try to win another's charms

I've been blinded by the colour of the rainbows
I've been steppin' over dollars just for dimes
Did you ever find yourself chasin' rainbows
When that pot of gold was right there all the time

I've been blinded by the colour of the rainbows
I've been steppin' over dollars just for dimes
Did you ever find yourself chasin' rainbows
When that pot of gold was right there all the time
