

Marvelous 3, Dismembered Love Song

(butch walker & chrystina llore)

Desperation's such an uneasy feeling,
Passion is the path that leads me here.
Controllin' the mind is easier than the heart.
I see a goodbye in your eyes yeah, yeah, yeah.

Cut my legs off, I will still chase you,
I will still hunt you down.
I will still chase you,
I will still hunt you down.

There's a bright fire inside of me.
It's burnin' hotter and spreadin' wider.
Frustrating a mind, only to find
It's destroying what matters yeah, yeah, yeah.

Cut my arms off, I will still hold you,

I will still hunt you down.
I will still hold you.
I will still hunt you down.

Can't you see this misery that I'm flaunting?
And the song that I'm humming?
Humming, humming, humming

Cut my eyes out and I will still look at you.
I will still hunt you down.
I will still look at you.
I will still hunt you down.
I will still chase you.
I will still hunt you down, down, down.
I will still hold you,
I will still hunt you down, yeah.
Down, down, down, alright.
