

Mary J. Blige, Don't Waste Your Time

(feat. Aretha Franklin)

[Mary]

Lately I've got this funny feeling
Something don't feel the same
But he's telling me I'm the one to blame
Yes I know that he still gives me good loving
But when he's deep inside
There's somebody else on his mind

[1] - [Aretha] Don't waste your time

[Mary] But it gets so hard to know

[Aretha] Just walk away

[Mary] You say that I gotta let go

[Both] Seen it a millions times before

[Aretha] You shouldn't take his stuff no more

[Mary] Can't waste my time

[Aretha] Girl, it's not hard to know

[Mary] Should walk away

[Aretha] Oh, you've gotta let him go

[Both] Seen it a millions times before

[Mary] Shouldn't take his ish no more

[Aretha]

Sister girl, sister girl
It's much deeper than what you're thinking
When something don't feel the same
Hey you better believe his love has change
(And I have been telling you, telling you)
And what you're telling me
(Cuz it's been hurting me, hurting me)
It ain't, ain't any fool can see
He's got a sweetie on the side
Stop making truth out of his lies

[Repeat 1]

[Aretha & Mary]

What's the point of love
When you got no trust
What's the point of staying
When you seen enough
What's the point of giving
What he don't deserve

[Mary]

He don't deserve it
No you don't deserve it

[Aretha]

Oh what's the point of feeling

[Aretha & Mary]

Like there's nothing inside
What's the point of saying
That you still got your pride
What's the point of giving
What he don't deserve
This is a lesson of love

[Repeat 1 with ad libs until fade]
