i think i really hate you
you im always lyin
this time there is somethin wrong but i wont tell you i cant tell you no
never the time
never the place
never the reason for this to go down
not here, not now, not here not now

i try to smile your a devil in angels clothing im so out a breath i'll stare you to death this is it and i know this is coming
not here, not now, not here not now

if we will do this im going to need another drink
i think i hate you
like i said this is what i think all i know is right now im way to high
and im trying to come down
(ready ready ready, everybody move) give me a minute to breath
im comin back
so you see this is a game dont so
its like
