Mastodon, Siberian Divide

Ice god shakes the earth Destruction of the path

Sinking deeper in the snow

Eating bark with blackened hands

Swollen fingers frozen jaw

Warm teeth wrapped around my wrist

Frostbite eating away at our limbs

Slit the belly brontotherium

Climb towards vermilion snowbank fall

Station of the crosses prayer save all

Chewing bone

Euphoria

Land and sky

Shining skull

Ice field blanket land

Hunted beyond the fray

No direction known

Running with the band

Provisions wearing thin

Avalanche sweeps the land

Starvation setting in

Spilling all that's left

Should've kept the fruits from virgin's vine

Three-horned face

Pillar of red

Evil lives atop my crooked spine

Rosebush current flow

Carmine river go

Solar storms erupt on the sun

Ice fields blanket land

Snow queen

Hypothermia

Ice lips

Hallucination

Ice field blanket land

Hunted beyond the fray

No direction known

Running with the band

Provisions wearing thin

Avalanche sweeps the land

Landscape ebb 'n' flow

Think I felt the end of time

Skulls aglow as crystal shines

And starts to warm the empty climb
