

Mat Kearney, Annie

I'm caught in a moment out in the rain
Tell me there's something we can say
Help me to find a light, something that's worth living
She's walking the back beat out in the grave
Tell me there's something we can change
Help me to find my way back down
'Cause Annie's got to get out before she never can
We're chasing for the ceiling, I'm grabbing for her hand
We're calling on a thin phone line tonight
'Cause Annie's got to get out
Holding the line from the back of the car
Miles and miles from where you are
Maybe the hardest things are the dreams that we've been given
And you scream and you sing and you shout
There's one way in and there's one way out
Help me to find my way back down
'Cause Annie's got to get out before she never can
We're chasing for the ceiling, I'm grabbing for her hand
We're calling on a thin phone line tonight
'Cause Annie's got to get out
There's one love in the morning and three days in the grave
Fall back in the evening, now our lives will change
I'm caught in a moment out in the rain
Tell me there's something we can say
Help me to find my way back down
'Cause Annie's got to get out before she never can
We're chasing for the ceiling, I'm grabbing for her hand
We're calling on a thin phone line tonight
'Cause Annie's got to get out, oh Annie's got to get out
We sing
