

Matchbook Romance, My Mannequin Can Dance

we're all eyes and in my personal opinion if we're not all you were hoping for when you say my name say it like a curse

i saw your face in the magazine saying i can't hear it all the girls all glittered and glossed screaming we can feel you, can you feel me? we'll die if we're not in a corpse of conscience lie
these lies live a life but don't lie to me

you're just chasing shadows
show us some heart and confess your sins we'll sing with arms closed and you can tear us apart cuz you won't break the skin just put on your face and... i would love nothing more in the world than to watch you as you spill your guts. unrehearsed you're just a silhouette you never had a voice so why all the fuss? you can have the kingdom, you can have the crown, but you won't have the people no, or else you drown.

show us some heart and confess your sins
you can tear us apart cuz you wont break the skin put on your face

and scream

you're just chasing shadows
show us some heart and confess your sins
you can tear us apart cause you wont break the skin

just put on your face
and scream
and scream
and scream for me
