

Matchbox 20, All I Need

Everywhere someone's getting over
Everybody cries and sometimes
You can still lose even if you really try
Talking 'bout the dream like the dream is over
Talk like that won't get you nowhere
Everybody's trusting in the heart
Like the heart don't lie
And that's all that I need, yeah
Someone else to cling to
Someone I can lean on until
I don't need to
Just stay all through the night
And in the morning let me down
Cuz that's all that I need, right now
Everywhere someone's getting over
Everybody's lied to someone
People still use other people
With a crooked smile
And all around the world
There's a sinking feeling
Out there right now
Someone's really
Down on themselves
And don't know why
That's all that I need, yeah
Someone else to cling to
Someone I can lean on until
I don't need to
Just stay all through the night
And in the morning let me down
Cuz that's all that I need right now
Life ain't no
Beauty show
We don't know where tomorrow ends
And when we're sad
It's kind of a drag
Just stay all through the night
And in the morning let me down
Cuz that's all that I need, yeah
That's all that I need
That's all that I need right now
Right now
