

Matrix & Futurebound, Magnetic Eyes (Ft. Baby Blue)

Walking out to lose myself, eyes down low take my mind to somewhere else, where i'm all alone
but then you step outta the stone faced crowd
like a wave's come crashing in, made the whirlpool spin, n' you lift me out...

It's so magnetic...
Magnetic Eyes...
there's no going back you've pulled me in to the night...
Magnetic Eyes... closer till our broken hearts collide...

Split apart by frozen miles of wind and rain
i can feel your desert heat pulling again
but then you step outta the stone faced crowd
like a wave's come crashing in, made the whirlpool spin, n' you lift me out...

Blue! You're so magnetic, your army is a soldier like a force from out of this world you pull me closer barriers blown apart, you're still a world afar
i think i'm drowning in the pool of hearts

You let me out! /5x
