

Matt Bianco, Just Can't Stand It

Help me beat this losing streak

I'm running 'round like a dog on heat.
I've got it bad
I know it's sad

every time I'm around you
baby.
I just can't stand it anymore

and I just can't stand it anymore.

You play me up
you cut me down

I must be blind when you fool me around.
It's bitter-sweet
this love you keep

every time I'm around you
baby.
I just can't stand it anymore

and I just can't stand it anymore.

A love-hate emotion I can't hide

'Cause I let each day take away my pride.
And you hurt me more each time I try to say good-bye.

A love-hate emotion I can't hide

I can't believe
I do the things I do for you

I've seen your tricks a hundred times yeah.
It's bitter-sweet
just a losing streak

every time I'm around you
baby.

I just can't stand it anymore

and I just can't stand it anymore.
I just can't stand it anymore

and I just can't stand it anymore.
Every time I'm around you
baby.
And I just can't stand it anymore - oh baby -
And I just can't stand it anymore.
