

Matt Nathanson, So Long

Don't tell me then
How heavy I am
I ruined everything
I've gotten used to the sound now
And it's all I know It's all you want
It thickens me up to keep my head down my eyes shut were overwhelmed
It's all we've got Cause I've overthought
these songs of (?)
It's been so long
this is what you wanted
its time I never started
its been so long
its been so long
it doesnt matter anyway
cover everything
i spent so long repeating all my lines
picking the right words to convince myself that i tried dont sing me songs
im your ticking tongue cause i never liked your voice yeah it always came out wrong I'm overwhelmed
these songs of (?)
It's been so long
this is what you wanted
its time I never started
its been so long
its been so long
doesnt matter anyway
to finally feel the daylight here well be perfect soon now
we'll be perfect now and you can look at me the same way again Im overwhelmed
its all I've got Cause I'm over sold
and over bought
cause breaking up is what all of this creates
its been so long
its time you never started
its been so long
doesnt matter anyway
come on cover me
could you cover me
will you cover me now?
as long as you want
is it all I started
its been so long
doesnt matter anyway
come on cover everything
