

Matt Pond PA, The Hollows

erasers impress me everyday - they have a way - of forgetting easily morning when your better half - has gone out back - and you can't hide what you see hide the hollows from me what's there, windows holes intact - behind me lacks the walls for me to breath i'm there - i am all around - I am spread out - the wide transparency

i'm not into explaining the symbol's slight but burning bright hide the hollows
