Matthew Sweet, Giving It Back

Your depth of sadness was a gift And for a while I cherished it I'm tired of wasting my time away So I'm giving it back to you Giving it back to you

It takes a lot to keep you going Wearing me down without you knowing My will to fight has gone away So I'm giving it back to you Giving it back to you

I'm tired of wasting my time away So I'm giving it back to you Giving it back to you

I'm tired of wasting my time away So I'm giving it back to you Giving it back to you
