

Mau Marcelo, I Shine For You

Wondering where you are now...
If you can see me smiling...
Through all the twists and turns...
Well, I was broken I was burned...
But I survived somehow...
You are the voice in my head...
Reminding me what I'm made of...
Take a chance, that's what you'd say...
The gift is yours to give away...
It's who I am...
It's who I am...
 Because you saw what I could be...
I had a chance 'cuz you believed...
Now as I make my dreams come true...
I Shine for you...
You were the one who dried my tears...
Walked with me 'til my path was clear...
You are in everything I do...
I shine for you...
I shine for you...
Somehow you always were there...
Cheering me on, and showing you care...
And now I'm out here on my own...
But I know that I'm not alone...
I still have you...
I still have you...
()
Every now and then I stumble...
Sometimes I'm afraid...
But like a hand upon my shoulder...
You're there to guide my way...
