

McFly, Little Cute Harry

(spoke) This is just little joanna but for all the people that want to sing it to Harry lol! IT IS NOT A R (sung)

Little cute Harry's got big blue eyes,
cocunut cream on coffee colour thighs.
I could die lying in his arms were,
castles are made of sand.

We start to dance,
but only the music is bleating,
when crickets replace the band!!
He will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
he goes up and down in my heart.

Turned into jellybeans,
and I'm starting to believe that,
dangers never near!

Oh when Harry is hear!!

Little cute Harry's like a lazer beam sky,
Glutious maximus like a firefly.
And that's why I'm a kissaphobic,
were celulite dreams are made.

Like lemonade,
but when the shivers are salty,
and sea foams the colour of space!!
He will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
he goes up and down in my heart.

Turned into jellybeans,
and I'm starting to believe that,
dangers never near!

Oh when Harry is hear!!

GOD I love cute Harry
but he don't understand much.
I love it when our hands touch,
knowing that I'm near.

Oh his sexy body,
I'm feeling kinda chilly,
and very very cool dude !

Oh when Harry is here!!

Little cute Harry's got big blue eyes,
I could die lying in his arms were,
castles are made of sand.

We start to dance,
but only the music is bleating,
when crickets replace the band!!
He will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
he goes up and down in my heart.

Turned into jellybeans,
and I'm starting to believe that,
dangers never near!

Oh when Harry is hear!!

Sunkissed trampoline, up and down in my heart! x5
