

Me And That Man (Adam Nergal Darski, John Po

Friends with the beast because of sharp teeth
The devil so red the fiery evil bleib

White faces, white faces always haunt me so beautifully
Learning temples meditating churches
Always bring out the white of the devil in me

The fat, the fat of demonism as ends begin
Fangs gnashing at the beauty as in reaches in

White faces, white faces always haunt me so beautifully
Learning temples meditating churches
Always bring out the white of the devil in me

White faces, white faces always haunt me so beautifully
Learning temples meditating churches
Always bring out the white of the devil in me

Colorful crucifixion riding the serpent dragon
Fire breathing fire breathing with his serpent tongue a'waggin'

White faces, white faces always haunt me so beautifully
Learning temples meditating churches
Always bring out the white of the devil in me
