

Me'Shell Ndegeocello, Stay

I want you

I can't get you off my mind

Ooh you turn me on-stay

So sorry you think it's wrong being here alone with me

I wish I could understand you and what you feel

You must feel something or you wouldn't have let me get this far

So don't be afraid just give in

If you let me have you just this once I promise never to want you anymore

'Cuz what's happening now feels so good

And the forbidden always arouses temptations

Come here let me have you

Just stay

Ooh baby come on let me
