Meat Puppets, Crazy

Whoa, crazy, got myself a job Oh, crazy, one more bank to rob I was lazy, had no fun in a while Now, crazy, I got a reason to smile

When icy rain is falling Then I can hear you call

Oh, this popstand, got no ocean view Still I'm happy, something feel so new Drop the problem, unless it's something you need Oh, crazy, plant a different seed

I love the clothes you're wearing But won't you let them fall

Take a minute, take an hour or two Oh, crazy, I got nothing to do Crazy moonbeams cover up the sky Oh, crazy, you're the light in my eye

And after one has fallen I got to have it all
