

Media Lab, My Perfect Storm

I feel the rain fall down on me again
I see your face within the storm
Wash me away - from you
You changed your mind
Ripping away from you
Crash down on my face, touching you I cant replace
I'm gonna stand up, scream your name forgetting why you left this way
Cry, tell me why, everyday, wishing you were by my side
Loving me, only me, taking back what you then took from me
Believing that your eyes, burn through the rain
I see your face, I'm bleeding you, I love you, I miss you today
