Megadeth, Back In The Day

Where were you when it happened? Where could you be found? Were you at the front of the stage? Or in the underground

From SF out to Old Bridge NY back to LA The world of metal changed forever Back in the day

Well that was back in the day And if you weren't there It doesn't matter anyway Because you wouldn't understand

Live to die and die to play Every day and place Leave a path of metal Across the world from stage to stage

Well that was back in the day And if you weren't there It doesn't matter anyway Because you wouldn't understand

In denim and leather
We were all part of one force
Knocked Rock and Roll on its ass
And put metal on the course

Higher!
Higher!
Higher!
Higher!
Back in the day
You weren't there
It doesn't matter
Because you wouldn't understand

This is our way of life A life that was born free To follow orders how to live Was never meant to be Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh

Peals of thunder, sheets of lighting The power hits the stage The music was exciting The mania raged On, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh

We all had the fever Our ears started to ring Feeding this wildfire Consuming everything Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh

Metal's King back then And still is this today Others imitate or challenge But it never goes away Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
