

Meiko, Hawaii

&lt;

I want to go to Hawaii
Build my castle out of sand
And I won't need anybody
Telling me that I can't

And you can't see
That you're seeing me
If you don't know
Who I am

You can't see
That you need me
And neither one of us, can be found
And neither one of us, can be found

I want to soak up the water
I dream about you every night
And in my mind, date, and order
Take it away in just one flight

And you can't see
That you're seeing me
If you don't know
Who I am

You can't see
That you need me
And neither one of us, can be found

Da dum da dum da dum....
