

Meja, I Didn't Know

I was alone thinking I was just fine
I wasn't looking for anyone to be mine
I thought love was just a fabrication
A train that wouldn't stop at my station

Home alone, that was my consignment
Solitary confinement
So when we met I was scirtling around you
I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you

I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you
I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you
I didn't know I was looking for love
I didn't know I was looking for love

Cause there you stood, and I would
Oh, I wonder, could I say how I felt
And not be misunderstood
A thousand stars came into my system
I never knew how much I missed them

Slap on the map of my heart you landed
I was coy but you made me candied
And now the planets circle around you
I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you

I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you
I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you
I didn't know I was looking for love
I didn't know I was looking for love

So we built from here with love
The foundation
In a world of tears
One consolation
And now your here
There's a full brass band
Playing in me like wonderland
And if you left I'd be 2 foot small
And every tear would be a waterfall
Soundless, boundless I surround you
I didn't know I was looking for love
Until I found you
