

Meja, Radio Radio

In this town there's so many stations tune is the one that feels right for you When you feel a little lonely, yeah
when you're feeling sad
I'm here to prove that ain't that bad Because

I am your radio
I sing you a song
Radio, radio
I sing you a song
If you're willing to turn on me

Zapping and searching creating vibrations until you find your own freaked out frequency

When you feel a little lonely, yeah
when you're feeling sad
I'm here to prove
that ain't that bad
Because

Repeat

Radio, radio
You're my radio

Repeat

Repeat
