

Mekong Delta, Curse Of Reality

Ambitious

I am

Gonna save this world

Drums beating

Soldiers marching

Don't stand in our way

Over the hills

We march

The final showdown is near

I am chosen

To be

Savior of this world one day

Marching on

Through this land

My dreams

They'll all come true

I will never ever fail

We just do what's right

We will never die

The world ain't real

The weak one cries

Soon he'll face truth

Over the hills

We march

The final showdown is near

Dawn is near

But what I see

I simply can't believe

Soldiers, soldiers, soldiers everywhere

As far as I can see

Billions of enemies

Bound to tear my world apart

Now that I face the facts

I gotta realize

Something must I have been wrong from the start

I can see

Them smile at me

I know the end is near

That's the curse of reality

Curse of reality

You have got me down

You have shot me down

You have knocked me down
