

Mekong Delta, Symphony Of Agony

Caught in Eternity
where you be lost in a dream

Where you can see what we forgot where you can be a kind of god unchained and free as it was thought and then awake up just to see a Symphony of Agony

the Insanity of Reality

Crying soldiers
Bursting bunkers
Creeping humans dying

Alone on this battlefield
so called live lost full of hate

Nothing to see we all forgot Nothing will be left by god Outside a dream nightmare controlled no need to wake up face the

Symphony of Agony
the Insanity of Reality

Dark clouds flying
Blood sun burning
Cold moon crying
Last men dying
Wiped out

The pride of mankind a threat, I am sorry will lead to nothing compromising evidence out of the past

Just disillusion
No sweet surrender
outside the inside
mutilated aspiration ease of mind
One last solution
clear up confusion now

Open your mind.
Don't leave your dream
And apprehend what I could mean.
Don't wake up!
