

Mel Carter, Here It Comes Again

Hey, don't you worry everythings alright you know we gonne be just fine if the rain crashes down over you I will love you

There is nobody in this world could ever take me away from you I am always by your side if you need someone to guide you dear I would like to try

Don't give up on something you never had before never could but we would together I promise you this you're the one I adore chorus

here it comes again
feeling my soul never want to let go
here it comes again
we have one way to love as below so above
(here it comes again)

My love is flowing freer than a waterfall beond the edge of time surender to the emotions now we can fly
we can fly

and you know there's a reason that we are who we are (who we are) I can not resist you're the one I adore
