

Melanie Blatt, Twenty four seven

Mmm (mmm)

Say yay-yay-yay-yay yaaaaay

24, mmm

Yayyyy

* If you want me there to do you right

To love you day and night

24/7 love you know just what I need is what I need

If you want me there to do you right

To love you day and night

24/7 love you know just what I need is what I need

Any morning, any evening

In the Winter, Spring or Summer

Whether its early, or it's late

It doesn't matter, any time

Tender loving, sweet devotion

Every second, minute, hour

I'll be waiting for you

Come put your loving on the line

 Take me in your arms and let me know that it's alright

Look into my eyes and let me see you deep inside

24 hours a day, 7 days a week

I need to feel you here beside me, I need to hold and squeeze you tight

[Repeat *]

I'll be praying, asking, saying

Yeah someone like you just found me

Something special I belong to

I can be yours and you'll be mine

While you're phoning, filled with passion

In my heart you know I'm yearning

Want to please you, touch you

Send me your loving right on time

[Repeat ** , * , *]

[Repeat * , *]

Yeahhh

Ooh, baby
