

Melanie C, Good Girl

I feel so bad

Never felt like this, about anything, I never have, no

Please, don't tell me that

What's lost is lost, it's never gonna come back home

I walk in circles when there's no one around

Try to fight my own direction

I test water but it burns my hand

As I disfigure my reflection

I've been a good girl

But you let me down

I feel so bad

Never felt like this 'bout anything, I never have, no

Please, don't tell me that

What's lost is lost, it's never gonna come back home

I lie in silence and I just cannot sleep

How I long for your affection

My eyes are tired and my body is weak

I can't handle this rejection

And I think it's mean

How you let me down

I feel so bad

Never felt like this 'bout anything, I never have, no

Please, don't tell me that

What's meant to be is meant to be, it's no consolation

I'll carry on

Proving everyone wrong

I will succeed

I feel so bad

Never felt like this 'bout anything, I never have, no

Please, don't tell me that

What's lost is lost, it's never gonna come back home, no

I feel so bad (I lie in silence and I just cannot sleep)

Never felt like this 'bout anything, I never have, no

Please, don't tell me that (my eyes are tired and my body is weak)

What's meant to be is meant
