

Melanie Thornton, Too Late

music by Ral De Chile & Jay Tee Rogers

lyrics by Jay Tee Rogers

Verse 1

This is the end - you did it again
Stop to pretend that you are in love with me
Stop telling me lies - I ain't gonna cry
No more alibis
High crime in the first degree!

Verse 2

I won't let you hurt me baby!
I won't let you drive me crazy!
I don't trust your angel eyes!
It's time to say good-bye!

Bridge

I've learned - in this game for two:
Don't forget your heart!
It's my turn - I will start again
And do the things I love!

Chorus

It's too late - you had your chance
The game is over...
Time out!
I'm not a game to play
I'm not your joystick when you play your game!
It's too late - for you to say I'm sorry, Baby!
Time out!
I'm not your game boy, no
I'm not your play-girl you can push around!

Verse 3

No more games with my heart
No gamble with my love
Right back to the start - this is where I have to go now
Respect my dreams and do the things that I need!
That's how I feel!
I'm gonna live my life right now!

I won't let you hurt me baby!
I won't let you drive me crazy!
I don't trust your angel eyes!
It's time to say good-bye!

Bridge

Chorus

Mid-Part

I'm still in love with you baby - it hurts so bad!
Your love is tearing my heart apart...

Chorus
