

Melissa Dori Dye, We Are One

take me by the hand regardless of your fear we only live once take me as i am give love and understanding if you've ever loved me and you will see

they're always second guessing me to me you are a blessing and we are one look into your heart in spite of what they've taught you use your own mind if you think for yourself a minute you can feel what's right whatever they have bought you with will fade like i am fading without you i don't know who they are don't care

i know they've poisoned you on me i don't know what they want i don't know why they don't believe

they can't touch this heart of gold faith will bring you home
