

Melissa Etheridge, A Lot Like You

My friends, they're so worried
Oh they say girl there's something definitely wrong
It ain't natural to go from one to another
Lover to lover moving along
They don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they feel a lot like you
When they hold me and they tell me that they love me
Baby they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
I guess I could say I don't know right from wrong
When the truth is that I just don't care
Since you left me I've got to get back to that feeling
Somehow somewhere
A little bit here and a little bit there
Well it helps to take away this emptiness that burns deep inside
Oh I think if I gather enough pieces
I can put together some kind of pride
I don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they feel a lot like you
When they hold me and they tell me that they love me
Baby they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
They don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they feel a lot like you
When they hold me and they tell me that they love me
Baby they feel a lot like you
When they kiss me and they touch me say they want me
Yeah they don't know
It takes 10 of their kisses to make 1 of yours
10 times baby oh they feel a lot like you
Sometimes if I close my eyes
If I close my eyes baby
They feel a lot like you
