

Melissa Ferrick, Rouble In My Head

got coffee on the table, yeah the coffee table and the first smoke of the day and now i am thinking that maybe i'll think of something good to say but my mind is traveling farther and farther away cuz the trouble in my head is getting closer and closer to my legs i gotta walk it out and the trouble with my heart is that i can't take it out and the trouble with myself is that i don't know me oh yeah so if you find me will you kindly show me the way home?

cuz i have got birds on my roof you see, well that sing beautifully and there is me in the living room and i am screaming to be free and i have got clothes in my bedroom yeah and they fit me right so now i am thinking that maybe i will get dressed up and go out tonight cuz the trouble in my head is getting closer and closer to my legs i gotta walk it out and the trouble with my heart is that i can't rip it out and the trouble with myself is that i don't know me so yeah if you find me will you kindly show me the way home?

cuz i am just tryin' to get home and i know i've got a lot of time on my clock to spare but not enough to make it from here to there and if it is not where you're from but where you're at well what happens when you have forgotten that?
