

Mellow Candle, Lonely Man

Lonely man looking for the day damns the night whose stars have left him cold lonely man doesn't know they're watching shouting all his questions to the sky.
Lonely man.

Lonely man searching for the sea fears the doom of ocean's prisoner lonely man doesn't see the seagull burying his weeping in the waves.
Lonely man.

Lonely man living all alone dreads the day whose dawn will find him cold lonely man doesn't see the millions waiting for their answers from the sky.
Lonely man.
