

Melody., Close Your Eyes

Lying broken on the floor
Waiting for her man to come back to her
She hums a melancholy tune
Just to pass the miserable time away away...

Though the candle has long before
Flickered off its last ray of light to her
She sees a vision of his face
It is haunting, still unable to let him go
Shut the door, theres no need to look back

Close your eyes and sleep tonight
Let dreams escort you into the light
Youll find the love that youre looking for
You can do so much more...
But you still choose to care... For him

Reading back her diaries
She relives a distant memory
Those times are nothing but a haze
But she can not seem to face
Whats then is now gone...
Shut the door, theres no need to look back

Close your eyes and sleep tonight
Let dreams escort you into the light
Youll find the love that youre looking for
You can do so much more...If you just
Say goodbye to yesterday
Its never too late to find a way
So take a look and youll clearly see
You can do anything...
But you still choose to care...

There is always a silver lining to a cloud
You gotta realize it now
Cant you feel
Endless love
Its shimmering all around you

Close your eyes and sleep tonight
Let dreams escort you into the light
Youll find the love that youre looking for
You can do so much more...If you just
Say goodbye to yesterday
Its never too late to find a way
So take a look and youll clearly see
You can do anything...
But you still choose to care...For him
