

Melody Fall, My last love letter

Forgetting is better
A life spent together
Its my last love letter
To let you know that you were wrong
But something is missing
This is my last good chance
let it go
As I can Ill try over and over again
As you know Im addicted to tragedy
Let me sing this forever
Let me hold you
Well be dancing together
And if Im so late Ill meet you there
Coming just for you
Well be sending love letters
Well be flying to the rainbow together
And if Im so late Ill meet you there
Coming just for you
Ill be coming just for you
I struggled to reach you
Ive hated to love you
An old pic reminds you
The oldest time when we were young
But something is missing
This is my last good chance
Let it go
As I can Ill try over and over again
As you know Im addicted to tragedy
I need some reaction
You were my inspiration
A lovely production
Of my imagination
A perfect affliction
An hurting perfection
A letter about you
To let you know that you were wrong
Let me dance with you, Ill dance with you
