

Melodyssey, Vacate

It's gonna be it's gonna be something that was said
Time passes you won't think again
Pressures off the world destroys the two
I didn't waste it
You'll be sorry, I'm gonna miss you like my sleep
Will you remember, my soul was yours and yours to keep

Why can't it be why can't it be something right
I'm wasting all my energy tonight
Pressures off the world destroys the two
I didn't waste it

Nothing to say
Nothing to say

One of these days I'll come back to haunt you

Better better
