

Mentallo & The Fixer, Bring To A Boil

Impale deep beneath the surface of my skin grasping last thoughts
The wounds lie within scarred past overcasting foreverlasting
It's getting worse a growing thirst a lust for blood
A crimson flood raw flesh feast on man by the beast
Obliterate existence divine impersistence in times were vast
And growing fast splintered salvation extermination sterilization
Much to mass come to pass
Cupid's broken arrow wartorn the unborn sing the unborn scream
I'll bring to a boil you'll see we're on the brink of extinction.
