

Mentallo & The Fixer, Decomposed

Blood stains the windows & there's no air to breathe
& so you've gone astray now, your lies to deceive
There was a trust in you, but you've gone off the path
And so it comes to an end nowm I can't help but laugh (goodbye at last)

Laugh

It's not hard to see

& so you've gone astray now, your lies to deceive
There was a trust in you, but you've ventured off the path
And so it comes to an end now, goodbye at last

It's not hard to see

It's not hard to see
& I'm not sorry
Your lies to deceive
& I'm not losing anything
I'm not losing anything
I'm not losing anything

There's no honesty believe me you can't deceive me.
