

Mercenary, Battle Thy Demons

Don't be afraid Of the price we paid It seemed such a loss What they did to us
To live with hate Is to die without pain The hounds are here To seek their prey
You can reduce your loss But you cannot win Battle thy demons Descending from hell Open your mind
The battle with the demons Seems to never end There is a new solution Encountering with the damned
Now it's time To follow the signs Into the past The future will last Cursing the kings o'time Peace within my mind Longing for a place Far beyond the demons maze
As we start to fight We have to realize They'll lay you down to rest Damnation of the quest
