

Mercenary, New Desire

Don't speak, before you start to run don't die believing, silence hide it deep inside, to be the question turn to understanding, of the difference in between to see what lies beneath me, and try to set the scene

Be yourself, save yourself my life is fading, all is lost turning to see you, my desire

Lay down, you won't be seen or heard don't think you're something, revenge prepare to take your stand, break free the silence turn to understanding, and the nothing turns to you and the something speaks to you you scream your name but you're voiceless
and the something speaks to you

Your voice, inside me that scream, still haunts me and I will bleed your name I'll reach the point in time, that dream still haunts me, the empty, despair
I'll reach the point in time, i'll bleed your name

in disguise, it's incomplete now inner lies, my new desire
